

Tone of Voice

1. How you say something is often more important than what you say!
2. A person can say the same words, but they may mean different things.

Let's write down what the following tones may be:

